

SPONSORSHIP

Toward Gigatonnes CO<sub>2</sub> Storage — Grand Geophysical Challenge

26–30 June 2022 • Stanford, CA and Virtual

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

This workshop will focus on the subsurface challenges of large-scale geological sequestration and how geophysical methods can provide solutions to these challenges. It aims to advance the state-of-the-art geophysical technologies and their applications in identifying geological storage sites and monitoring safe long-term subsurface storage without creating new environmental and geological hazards. For more information, please visit the webpage.
